

OKSANA BIHUN

Composer | Vocalist | Poet

Moorhead, MN | obihun.phd@gmail.com

ARTISTIC FOCUS

Composer, vocalist, and artistic director creating original works for voice, piano, and choral ensembles, integrating poetry, music, performance, and themes of spiritual experience and emotional transformation.

EDUCATION

Kos-Anatolsky Music School No. 1, Lviv, Ukraine, Distinction of Excellence 1986–1994
Piano, bandura (similar to the harp), solfeggio, music theory, choir, and music literature

COMPOSITIONS

- Healing, monodrama for voice and piano, 18 minutes, 2026
- Gentle Flower, nine songs for voice and piano, 45 minutes, 2026
- Summer Blooms for an SSA ensemble, 2.5 minutes, 2025; performed by ensemble “Summer Blooms”
- Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom for mixed choir, 60 minutes, 2024
- Salve Regina for mixed choir, 3 minutes, 2009; performed by Galician Chamber Choir “Yevshan”
- The Avenues of Sound Run, Autumn Rode Across the Field, Evening Romance, songs for voice and guitar, 7 minutes, 2002, 2003, and 2018; performed by the composer
- Ukraine, Wedding March, Ri-ri, Autumn, Evening Alone, piano pieces, 23 minutes, 2008–2020; performed by the composer

PERFORMANCES

- Soloist – album Gentle Flower recording, 2026; Fargo-Moorhead Choral Artists, 2025
- Cantor – NDSU Newman Center, 2025–present; St. Joseph Church, 2011–2015
- Singer – Fargo-Moorhead Choral Artists, 2022–2025; Sacred Heart Choir, 2006–2009 and 2016–2019; Revelation Choir, 2011–2015 and 2020–2022; Galician Chamber Choir “Yevshan” (Ukraine, two CD recordings and a tour in Europe), 2001–2003
- Performer – bandura and piano in concerts and theatrical productions, 1990–2026

DIRECTING

- Artistic Director and Founder, Summer Blooms women’s ensemble, 2025–present
- Curator, organizer, and performer in poetry and music concerts (voice, bandura, guitar, cello collaboration), 1994–2003, 2016–present
- Musical director for theatrical productions Truth will Liberate Us, Three Loves, The Great Vault, and others, by artistic group “Osmoloda”; two productions won first prizes in competitions at Ivan Franko National University of Lviv, 1996–2001

PUBLICATIONS

- Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, SATB divisi, Kule Folklore Centre, University of Alberta, Canada, 2026 and Choral Public Domain Library, 2025
- Underwork Yourself: How to Combine Self-care and Work, a psychological self-help book that combines evidence-based material with fiction and poetry, Amazon, 2022
- Distance to the Border. Labyrinth, two-volume poetry collection, Spolom, 2018
- Anticipation of Christmas, poetry book, 100 pages, Kamenyar, 2010
- Poetry in collections, journals, and newspapers Pryvitannia Zhyttia, Arka, Kamenyar, and Dzvin

AWARDS AND MEMBERSHIPS

- Maximum Funding, Individual Artist Grant, The Arts Partnership, 2026
- First Prize, Kateryna Mandryk-Kuybida Award, 2020
- Recipient, Panteleimon Kulish International Literature and Arts Award, 2019
- Member, National Society of Writers of Ukraine, since 2019
- Member, International Academy of Literature and Arts, Ukraine, since 2019

BACKGROUND

Ph.D. in Mathematics, University of Missouri, Columbia, 2009; former mathematics professor at Concordia College and the University of Colorado (11 years); currently an AI trainer and math expert at Mercor, working part-time alongside an active artistic practice.